Owens-Illinois. Around the world. Across the nation. And just up the street.

With sales of $3.6 billion a year, more than 100 domestic facilities in 28 states, 70,000 employees, and operations on six continents, O-I is among the largest industries on the Fortune 500, and one of the 30 organizations which make up the Dow Jones Industrial Average. We're big, sophisticated, and growing.

Here in Toledo, we're also your neighbor.

We maintain more than a dozen local facilities, including the Duraglas Center (14th & Adams); our Technical Center (Dorr & Westwood); the Libbey Glass Plant (Ash Street); and Levis Development Park (Perrysburg). And, of course, our new O-I World Headquarters Building on the downtown riverfront – our most recent commitment to our employees, the city and its future. There are some 5,500 O-I employees in Toledo – your friends, relatives, neighbors. Our Toledo payroll is currently in excess of $131 million annually. And we purchase more than $65 million worth of supplies and services from more than 1,100 Toledo area businesses, large and small.

And we try very hard to be a good neighbor.

We support community institutions like the Toledo Zoo, the Art Museum, the Symphony, the Medical College of Ohio, Owens Tech, Bowling Green State University, and the University of Toledo, and boost community action and civic responsibility groups.

The taxes we pay on our Toledo facilities help support everything from community services to police and fire departments, and we encourage all Toledo employees to take an active role in community affairs that range from politics to the Boy Scouts to the United Way Campaign.

In short, we're concerned, we're responsive, we're involved.

Toledo – it's our hometown, too.

A Toledo-based, multinational, $3.6 billion manufacturer and marketer of glass containers, plastic containers, corrugated boxes, closures, convenience food service products, Libbey table glassware, Kimble brand scientific and laboratory ware, television bulbs and faceplates, plastic and paper shipping bags, and new generation products for the markets of tomorrow.
