The South Mountain Rockets extended a warm welcome to the West Haven Blues last Sunday here at South Mountain Arena, but by the end of the night, the Blues probably wished they didn't have such cordial hosts. The Blues were easily outclassed by a score of 8-1 as the Rockets amassed a total of 20 points in goals and assists. The big factor in the Rocket victory was the way in which the scoring was shared by 10 of the Rockets. The three big guns in the Rocket attack were Bobby Macioci, Ray Burr and Richie Wolff, who all use to play in the Metropolitan League a few years back. Bobby, who is certainly one of the most aggressive players on the Rocket club displayed his other hockey talents as he hit for 2 goals and 2 assists. This gives Bobby 26 points for the season, third best on the team, and it definitely shows that Bobby is quite a bit more than just a "tough guy." Ray Burr, who was on the All-Star team back in his days in the Met. League, filled in very well for the injured John Oswald who was forced from the game after jamming his hand against the boards. Besides playing great defense though, Ray also found time to knock in one goal and 2 assists to increase his totals to 15 points for the season. Richie Wolfe had a big night too collecting 2 goals and 1 assist to put him in the sixth position on the club in points. Mike Day, John Warchol, and Pete Herms each had a goal and an assist and John Oswald, Ron Moreau, Stevie Hynes and Dave Sloan each had an assist to round out the scoring. It was an easy night for the Rockets, but they should have a bit more trouble against the Brewers tonight.
